Holy Communion

Pattern for Worship

In the principal service of Christian worship, the Holy Spirit gathers people around the means of grace: the saving Word of God and the sacraments. From the table of communion where Jesus Christ meets us with forgiveness, life, and salvation, we are sent out to share God's love and to care for those in need.

The basic pattern of this service — gathering, word, meal, sending — is a structure that allows for freedom and flexibility in the ways worship may be shaped locally, while focusing on what the church holds in common. The whole people of God are joined by the same gifts of grace, for the sake of the same mission of the gospel, into the life of the one triune God. Remember, people of all faiths are welcome at the Lord's Table. You may also come forward for a prayer of blessing from our pastor.

Why Do We Have Liturgy?

Our liturgy forms a pattern that is familiar and repetitious in order to help us frame our minds for a fuller worship experience. As steps in a dance free you to express yourself in music, the patterns in liturgy free us to express ourselves spiritually. There is comfort in repeating phrases and prayers each week, and liturgy — literally the “work of the church” — frames our collective experience each time we gather. We hope you find peace, strength, and comfort in the liturgy we have designed for you today!

GATHERING

The Holy Spirit calls us together as the people of God.

Prelude

Confession and Forgiveness

Leader Blessed be the Holy Trinity, ☩ one God, full of compassion and mercy, and abounding in steadfast love.

All Amen.

Leader Trusting in Christ's promise of forgiveness, let us now turn our hearts toward God in humble confession.

Silence is kept for reflection. Please kneel or sit.

Leader Gracious God,

All You are our breath and our very life. We are the work of your hands, the children of your creation. We confess that we have often turned from you and sought our own path through life. Forgive us our offenses, and cleanse us from proud thoughts and empty desires. By your grace draw us near to you, that you may be our refuge and our strength; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Leader As we are reminded each week, God, who is rich in mercy, loved us even when we were still far away, and has given us new life through our Lord Jesus Christ. By grace you have been saved, and in the name of the Father, and of the ☩ Son, and of the Holy Spirit, God forgives you all your sins!

All Amen.

Leader We express our faith using the words of the Apostles' Creed.

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.*
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

or, "descended into hell."*

The Great Thanksgiving

Pastor The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Pastor Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Pastor Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Pastor It is indeed right and salutary, that we should at all times and in all places, give thanks to you, O Lord heavenly Father, through Christ our Lord. You comforted your people with the promise of the Redeemer, through who you will also make all things new in the day when he comes again to judge the world in righteousness. And so with the church on earth and the host of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na. Ho - san-na. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san - na in the high - est.

Pastor Blessed are you, almighty and ever-living God. Your mercy is everlasting and your faithfulness endures from age to age. We give you thanks that you have gathered us into one through your Son, Jesus Christ, who reached out to heal the sick and suffering, who preached good news to the poor, and who, on the cross, opened his arms to all. Send now your Holy Spirit into our hearts, that we may receive our Lord with a living faith as he comes to us in his holy supper.

All Amen! We give you thanks and praise, O Lord!

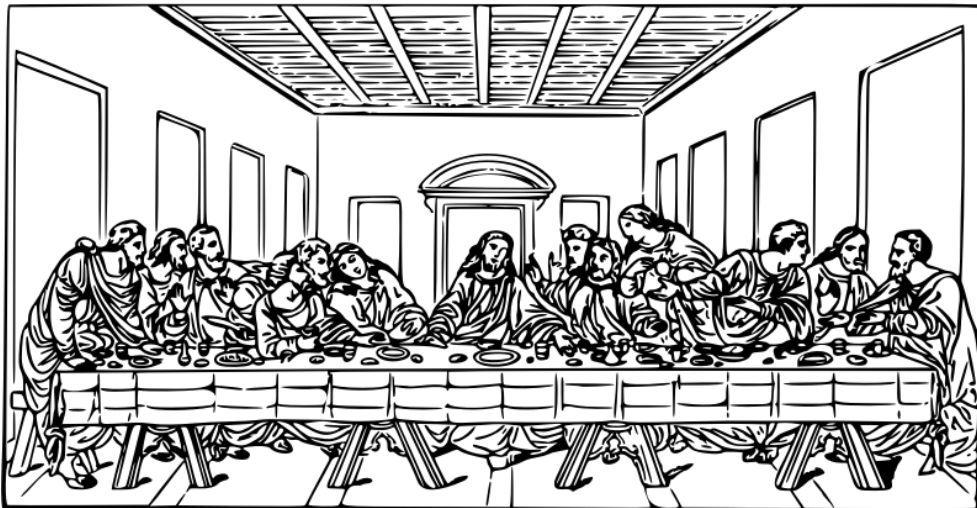

Pastor On the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:

This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, his death, resurrection, and ascension, we await his coming in glory. Pour out your Holy Spirit, that by this Holy Communion we may know the unity that we share with all your people in the body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Through him, † with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are yours, Almighty God, now and forever.

All Amen.

Pastor Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us boldly pray:

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
