You know, Atonement is blessed with a hand full of hard-working people, who are keeping YOUR CHURCH running. Each week, they faithfully put together a service for all of us to come to or enjoy online. I feel they deserve the support of those they are working so hard for! So, please think about joining them in the morning. Because Atonement is more than just a church. We are a family and we are Atonement strong.

As always, Diane
